In pursuance to our order dated August 18, 2006, the sealed cover has been produced showing the result of the petitioners. We have perused the sealed cover after the same has been de-sealed by the Bench Secretary. We find that the petitioners do not make the grand as their marks in the written test are below the last candidate called for interview in respect of their category. Accordingly, the writ petition fails and the same is dismissed. The sealed cover after re-sealing has been handed over to the learned State counsel.
